

The Konevets Quartet
From St. Petersburg, Russia
Tuesday, May 18th, 7:00 pm
Russian Orthodox Community Center
617 Sand Creek Road
Suggested Donation $10.00

This internationally renowned ensemble, was founded in 1992 by graduates of the St. Petersburg Music Conservatory and the Glinka Choral Academy. They have performed and won awards throughout Europe, Canada and the US, as ambassadors of the Konevets Monastery and of Russian Orthodox Church music. They are all master musicians, conductors, composers and authors. Their repertoire includes sacred music, medieval chants, folk songs and military marches.

*Russian Orthodox Community Center
617 Sand Creek Road
Albany, NY 12205*

April 5, 2010

Re: Konevets Quartet Concert

The Konevets Quartet from St. Peterburg, Russia will perform at the Russian Orthodox Community Center on Tuesday, May 18th at 7:00 pm.

This internationally renowned ensemble, was founded in 1992 by graduates of the St. Petersburg Music Conservatory and the Glinka Choral Academy. They have performed and won awards throughout Europe, Canada and the US, as ambassadors of the Konevets Monastery and of Russian Orthodox Church music. They are all master musicians, conductors, composers and authors. Their repertoire includes sacred music, medieval chants, folk songs and military marches.

Thank you for helping to advertise this concert.

If you have any questions, please contact me directly at 459-1253 (after 5pm) or 471-4704 (between 9am-5pm).

Sincerely,

Taisia Fedorov