

YOUTH THEATRE PLAYERS present . . .

TO ART AND BEYOND

Written and Directed by Sue Frost and Val Kavanaugh

A trip to an art museum becomes much more than some students expected. What really happens when you "relate" to art? Between fear and amazement, the students experience art on a very personal level.

July 9–August 5 Grades 3 - 8 $75 for 4-week session
Rehearsals: Monday, Wednesday, Thursday 6:30-8:00pm

PERFORMANCE DATES · August 4th 7pm · August 5th 2:30pm

Creative Movement • Jackie Abbott
July 9 - 13 Grades K-2 $60 9am-10:30am

This class is an enjoyable way for young children to develop physical skills, channel their energy, stimulate their imagination and promote creativity. Jackie will choose a "theme of the day" and the children will be given opportunities to explore and discover different aspects of movement based on this theme.

July 13 Celebration

Improvisation for the Theater • Barbara Smith
July 9-13 Grades 8-12 $65 11:30-1:30pm

Loosen your tongue; break your bubble; firm up your spontaneity muscles. Improv frees creativity in both acting and life. Guaranteed exciting and non-threatening.

July 13 Performance

Filmmaking: From Script to Screen • Jim Powers
July 16 - 27 Grades 8-12 $135 for 2-week class 9am-12pm

An all-inclusive, start to finish, hands on film making course. By the end of the class each member will have worked on every aspect of the filmmaking process. From "The Pitch" to screenwriting, acting, filming, sound tech, producing, directing, editing and post production. Taught by multi-award winning filmmakers Jim and Steve Powers, this immersive class is for anyone who is interested in the art of filmmaking and is ready for the exciting and busy world of making movies from script to screen.

Students will receive a DVD to take home.

July 27 Film Screening

Graphic Novel Illustration • Phil Singer
July 16-20 Grades 6-9 $65 10-12am

We will begin by developing a story which we will build into a graphic novel. Each student will rough out 2 pages: characters and layout. Then, collaboratively, we will make decisions about characters and layout of the graphic novel as a whole. During the final 2 classes students will layout, pencil, and finally ink 2 pages of the graphic short story (including lettering, page design, and finished art).

Play it Again, Sam • Stephanie Manuel
July 16-20 Grades 4-6 $55 1:30-2:30

This is a recorder class for those who enjoy playing! We will get right down to business, learning and even composing our own songs to perform in a concert for friends on Friday. We will explore different types of recorders and their history. Together we will make some beautiful music! Previous recorder experience is helpful—let's play! Use your recorder or buy one for $5.

July 20 Performance

We Got the Beat • Stephanie Manuel
July 16-20 Grades 1-3 $55 2:30–3:30

This is the class for those younger friends who need to feel the rhythm! We will play with bean bags, rhythm sticks, scarves, shakers and other fun instruments, while movin' and groovin' to the music! Through the music we will develop coordination, listening, and direction following.

This class will keep you on your toes!

Art Smart • Pat Smart
July 30-August 3 Grades 4-7 $65 9-11am

Students will use their creative imagination and explore the world of fabric art with batik and learn the magic of sun printing and printmaking activities such as monoprinting and etching. Small groups provide valuable individual attention and there is always time to pursue individual interests.

Sweet Ceramics • Dana Wertz
July 23-27 Grades 1-3 $55 12:30-1:30

Come and learn about two very fun topics - art and dessert! In this course students will learn about artists who used food (mostly desserts) as their inspiration for making art. Then they will make a favorite treat of their own out of clay! They will learn how to build and assemble basic shapes with the clay and then decorate them.

Take home a dessert that will last forever.

Let's Draw From Life! • Dana Wertz
July 23-27 Grades 4-7 $55 1:30-2:30

A still life drawing class is something for everyone to try! In this class you will look at some of the greatest still life artists of all time and learn fun, easy techniques for making your own drawings look more realistic and come to life. Everyone has his/her own unique style of drawing and way of viewing.

Come draw and show your creativity!

Pop Block Art! • Dana Wertz
July 23-27 Grades 9-12 $55 2:30-3:30

Clothing logos, band posters, magazine ads...everywhere you look you can find bold, colorful printed images from the world of Pop Art. In this class you will learn one of the many printmaking techniques used to make these graphic designs. Each student will create a linoleum block of his/her own design. You will experiment with different colors and make multiple prints of your block.

Be cool, be creative!

Creative Clay • Jami Gras
July 30-August 3 Grades 4-7 $70 1-3pm

Students will be encouraged to experiment and use their imagination to have fun with a variety of activities which include: Pinch Pots, Masks, Carving, and Hand Building. Students' work will be kiln fired throughout the week & the last work will be available for pick up one week after the last class.
