It's 1929. Two ambitious visionaries race against each other to invent a device called "television." Separated by two thousand miles, each knows that if he stops working, even for a moment, the other will gain the edge. Who will unlock the key to the greatest innovation of the 20th century: the ruthless media mogul, or the self-taught Idaho farm boy? The answer comes to compelling life in The Farnsworth Invention from Aaron Sorkin, creator of The West Wing, playwright of A Few Good Men and Golden Globe winner and Oscar nominated writer for The Social Network.
