Jump by Charly Evon Simpson

As Fay copes with the death of her mother and loss of her childhood home, she seeks solace by frequenting the bridge she used to visit with her mother. There she meets Hopkins, who walks the bridge as a balm for his own grieving. JUMP is a play full of flickering lights, vapes that fall from the sky, and the magic of hope in the midst of loss.

Featuring:

Nellson Jacobs-Moore, Russell Roberts, Dalyce Uribe, Monet Thompson-Young

Current Covid Protocol:

As an abundance of caution, we are asking that all patrons wear a mask while in the theater. Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Coming up next at ACT:

AMERICAN BUFFALO by David Mamet, directed by Linda Shirey.
Performance Dates: May 5, 6, 7, 12, 13, 14, 19, 20, 21, 2023.
