

The Music Studio Is Pleased to Announce That for Two Weeks This Summer . . .

The Music Studio Rocks

Join us for a fun and intensive rock camp led by hard-working musicians and beloved local teachers

Tom Pirozzi and Kevin Hendrick.

Tom Pirozzi cofounded the seminal 90's jam band Ominous Seapods, for which he played bass as well as contributed vocals and wrote songs. The Seapods toured nationally and released five CDs before disbanding in 2001. Tom went on to compose and perform with the Pittsburgh-based modern dance company "Attack Theatre," performing both in the U.S. and abroad. In 2009 and 2010, Tom toured the U.S. and Asia playing upright bass in a trio that featured world-renowned cellist Dave Eggar. Tom currently teaches bass and guitar and plays in several well-known area bands, including the jam band Raisinhead and the Irish music band Get Up Jack!

Kevin Hendrick got his degree in B.S. in Music Education, with a Trumpet concentration, from The College of St. Rose (Albany, NY). He plays keyboards, trumpet, and bass in a number of groups in the Northeast, has played in the pits for numerous musical productions, and has taught music in schools as well as in private lessons. His compositions and arrangements have been nominated for Grammy Awards, and have been featured in motion pictures and television. A producer and engineer as well, Kevin is currently the music director for Los Duenos de La Salsa and the house sound engineer for the live music series at Dinosaur BBQ in Troy.
