

FACULTY OPENING

TEACHERS OF MUSIC: Private, well-established school of music has a faculty opening for an exceptional teacher with a degree in piano or piano pedagogy. During our 38 years in business, we have won recognition and numerous awards for our innovative, comprehensive, custom-designed program. Many of our students have won regional piano competitions, and performed with the Albany Symphony Orchestra, local jazz musicians, and contemporary composers.

Responsibilities include:

- ◆ Teaching well-structured, high-energy music fundamentals classes for children ages 3–8, with emphasis on singing, ear training, rhythm, movement, reading, keyboard, recorder, Orff, and guitar
- ◆ Teaching piano lessons, both private and class, for students and adults at various levels of advancement.
- ◆ Preparing students to perform at their best in periodic recitals, evaluations, and public performances, and helping the Studio administer those events.

This is a salaried position with periodic increases. We offer health and disability insurance, paid vacation, reimbursement for employment-related continued education, and many other benefits. Positive, can-do attitude is essential.

Full-time position begins immediately. Please send résumé and two letters of recommendation to themusicstudio@verizon.net
