

INT. COLLEGE PROFESSOR'S OFFICE.

College Professor expresses concern over student falling behind on assignments and asks if there's anything troubling him that he needs to talk about.

MALE STUDENT (VICTIM)

Well a few months ago a student harassed me, I barely know him, and he started to berate me in front of people. Calling me a fag. I just smiled and played it off...

(beat)

I kinda forgot about it. Later that night he followed me into the restrooms and confronted me.

(Takes a moment to collect himself)

He grabbed me inappropriately, and I just froze. He continued and said, this is what you like isn't it...

(beat)

Then he left.
