

WINTER 2017 AUDITION INTENSIVE

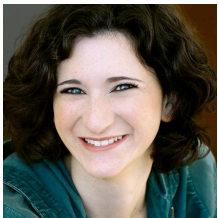

This 3-week intensive will help you nail that next audition! Whether your sights are set on professional productions, top musical theatre college programs or you are looking to improve your skills for auditions here at Park Playhouse, there are tools and techniques that can boost your confidence and better equip you for success. We will focus first on how to find appropriate audition material and then on what to do once you've found that perfect song or monologue. Week one we will focus on how to choose material that is right for you and start to dissect your selections. Weeks two and three we will put our tools into practice and coach our songs and monologues. This class will be taught by Meredith Myers with accompaniment and additional coaching by Leora Bernstein. Each session is three hours and will be held at Cohoes Music Hall.
