Home Made Theater Holds Open Auditions for INSPECTING CAROL

Home Made Theater announces open auditions for their February production of INSPECTING CAROL, by Daniel J. Sullivan, directed by Jonathan Hefter. Auditions will be held on Monday, November 13th, and Tuesday November 14th from 6:30-8:00pm at the Spa Little Theater in Saratoga Spa State Park. Callbacks will be held Tuesday following the auditions. There are 11 roles available for actors who can play from 20 to 60+. There is one role for a boy of approximately 11.

A madcap comedy, INSPECTING CAROL is about a group of dysfunctional theater people who take themselves very seriously. This struggling theater company is set to open their annual production of A CHRISTMAS CAROL when they find out their funding is being held up until they pass an undercover inspection. When an impossibly bad actor is mistakenly identified as the inspector, the troupe does everything to accommodate his craziest wishes. As the impending opening night draws closer, it seems only a Christmas miracle will save this production.

Production dates are weekends, February 10th – 25th Rehearsals will begin early January. Actors should bring a current photo and resume. Photos cannot be returned. No appointments are necessary for the audition. Actors will read from the provided excerpts from the play. For a detailed flyer with character descriptions or questions about the audition, contact HMT at 518-587-4427, or visit their web site at www.homemadetheater.org.
