

THE BODYGUARD
THE MUSICAL

JONATHAN HADLEY (Sy Spector) appeared on Broadway as Bob Crewe in Jersey Boys, a role he played for more than 2,000 performances on both the national and international tours. Broadway: A Class Act. Off-Broadway: Finian's Rainbow, Widowers' Houses, Rothschild and Sons. Tours: Into the Woods, Joseph, Fiddler on the Roof, Forbidden Broadway. Regional: Pete 'n' Keely, Vanya and Sonia, Call Me Madam (at Paper Mill with Leslie Uggams), Tammy Faye's Final Audition, Dirty Blonde, Yiddle with a Fiddle (Boston Herald Award). TV/Film: After Ella, "Writer's Block," "Another World," "Sex and the City." Jonathan holds degrees from UNSCA (Acting) and Brooklyn College (Directing).

Jonathan was born and raised in Charlotte, NC. He attended Myers Park High School and the North Carolina School of the Arts (BFA Acting). Jonathan's father is Dr. Charles Hadley who is known in Charlotte as the former Queens College professor who is the "Dialect Coach to the Stars." Jonathan's stepmother Jane Hadley was a founding member of the local Equity theater that is now called the Actors Theatre of Charlotte.