NIQUE

Did she touch you any at all?

BOY

What do you mean?

NIQUE

Did she touch your hand, leg, thighs? Did y'all reach for the bowling ball at the same time and your fingers touched and you just stopped, stared into each other eyes and kiss like in the movies?

BOY

Nique, no.

NIQUE

Tsk, yeah, she don't love you. One of the keys to knowing if someone still has feelings for you is to see how they react when you touch them or get up in their personal space, if they push you out that's bad, but if they let you stay in, you're good.

BOY

I never got that close to her.

NIQUE

And she never got close to you?

BOY

Nope.

NIQUE

Sis sending mixed signals. She invited you out and didn't try getting close to you?... Damn, maybe she actually just wants to be your friend.

BOY

Mhmmm.

NIQUE

See this is why I can't be bothered with some women, maybe I'm just built different, because if I want you back, amma just let you know I want you back, straight up! No hiding around the bushes, straight up, just like that! "I want you back let's go have sex." It is that easy. You wouldn't be going through all this right now if she had just done that. I wouldn't be going through all this either!

BOY

What exactly are you going through?

NIQUE

It's a few things babe. One: I don't know if I should schedule boxing lessons just incase I have to fight her for you. Two: I'm not sure if those lessons are going to be, to beat her ass for you or to beat her ass after she breaks your heart. Either way I'm still going to need them. Three: I don't know if I should try harder with you or just back off and let you slip into her stupid arms. Four: I don't know if I should tie my hair up get on my knees and let you feel what this mouth do or strip naked and just rape you... You see what I'm going through here?

BOY

You know, that get down on your knees stuff sounds like an experience.

NIQUE

An experience you won't have if you chose her over me... Ugh who am kidding? I would do it right now, but you're bluffing you won't let me.

BOY

She used to do that thing with her tongue where she--

NIQUE

I'm leaving!
