

Home Made Theater Audition Call:

High School Reunion 2024: Burying the Past
A New Life for Grinnen Barrett High

Who is the victim? Who is the murderer? This is your chance to play a role in the Home Made Theater Murder Mystery Fundraiser for 2024! There will be two performances Saturday, October 19 at The Mansion Inn, 801 NY-29, Rock City Falls, NY 12863.

The script was written by Kirk & Maria Starcewski and will be directed by Terri Storti.

The characters are as follows:

Principal Soffus, from Grinnen High School, owns land joint high school is built on, is attempting to bribe school board to choose her as the new principal for Grinnen Barrett High School.

Annette O'Hare, Barrett High, cafeteria lady in charge of all food purchases, she and Soffus were in the same home economics class. Both applied to CIA and when they came to interview her, Soffus sabotaged her, O'Hare wants revenge.

Portia Carr, Grinnen High, English teacher, director of drama club, position eliminated.

Abby Kuss, Grinnen High, geeky math teacher, does books for school board, finds Soffus is stealing money.

Rita Lynne, Grinnen High, nurse, being blackmailed for skimming meds from ADHD students and selling on the side.

Sue Zaphone, Barrett High, past president of glee club, now a music teacher at Barrett High.

Dean O'Sore, Barrett High, principal of rival school, learns about Soffus' attempt to bribe board and realizes his potential loss of a job.

Helmut Headd, Barrett High, former quarterback, BMOC, who doesn't know Soffus knows he sold the team playbook for money to rival school (when he was a student) and lost the big game, feigning injury.

Auditions will be Monday & Tuesday, August 12 & 13 at the Wilton Mall location at 7pm and will consist of readings of scenes from the script.

For more information contact Terri Storti at tstorti@gmail.com.